

The background of the slide is a deep space photograph, likely from the Hubble Space Telescope, showing a dense field of galaxies and stars. The galaxies are of various shapes and sizes, some appearing as bright, irregular clouds of light, while others are more distant and faint. The stars are scattered throughout the field, some appearing as sharp points of light and others as more diffuse, glowing spheres. The overall color palette is dominated by deep blues, purples, and whites, with some hints of orange and red from distant galaxies.

A deep-field astronomical image from the Hubble Space Telescope, showing a vast field of galaxies. The background is a dense field of galaxies, many of which are small and faint, appearing as tiny blue or orange specks. Some larger, more prominent galaxies are visible, including a bright, elongated galaxy in the upper left and a bright, circular galaxy in the lower left. The overall color palette is dominated by dark blues and oranges, with some white and yellow highlights from brighter stars or galaxies.

The galaxies are of various shapes and sizes, some appearing as bright, distinct objects and others as faint, distant specks. The stars are scattered throughout the field, some appearing as bright, multi-colored points of light.

How many galaxies did God make?

Psa 19:1 The heavens declare the glory of God; the skies proclaim the work of his hands.

Psa 19:2 Day after day they pour forth speech; night after night they display knowledge.

Psa 19:3 There is no speech or language where their voice is not heard.

Talking to God

The one who made all this!

Talking to God

Psa 8:3 When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place,

Psa 8:4 what is man that you are mindful of him, the son of man that you care for him?

Talking to God

Psa 139:1 O LORD, you have searched me and you know me.

Psa 139:2 You know when I sit and when I rise; you perceive my thoughts from afar.

Psa 139:3 You discern my going out and my lying down; you are familiar with all my ways.

Talking to God

Psa 139:4 Before a word is on my tongue you know it completely, O LORD.

Psa 139:5 You hem me in—behind and before; you have laid your hand upon me.

Psa 139:6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too lofty for me to attain.

Talking to God

Psa 139:7 Where can I go from your Spirit? Where can I flee from your presence?

Psa 139:8 If I go up to the heavens, you are there; if I make my bed in the depths, you are there.

Psa 139:9 If I rise on the wings of the dawn, if I settle on the far side of the sea,

Psa 139:10 even there your hand will guide me, your right hand will hold me fast.

Talking to God

Psa 139:11 If I say, "Surely the darkness will hide me and the light become night around me,"

Psa 139:12 even the darkness will not be dark to you; the night will shine like the day, for darkness is as light to you.

Talking to God

Psa 139:13 For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb.

Psa 139:14 I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well.

Talking to God

Psa 139:15 My frame was not hidden from you when I was made in the secret place. When I was woven together in the depths of the earth,

Psa 139:16 your eyes saw my unformed body. All the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be.

Talking to God

Psa 139:17 How precious to me are your thoughts, O God!
How vast is the sum of them!

Psa 139:18 Were I to count them, they would outnumber the grains of sand. When I awake, I am still with you.

Talking to God

Psa 139:19 If only you would slay the wicked, O God! Away from me, you bloodthirsty men!

Psa 139:20 They speak of you with evil intent; your adversaries misuse your name.

Psa 139:21 Do I not hate those who hate you, O LORD, and abhor those who rise up against you?

Psa 139:22 I have nothing but hatred for them; I count them my enemies.

Talking to God

Psa 139:23 Search me, O God, and know my heart; test me and know my anxious thoughts.

Psa 139:24 See if there is any offensive way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.
